SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

Interest in wheat in the local market yesterday was confined to professional and expenditure way, but foreign markets, especially those in England, were fairly strong. Receipts were moderate, except in the Nosthwest, and country off-eings were light. Statistical news was mainly builded, the principal factor being Brackinsel's receipt of a decrease in the visible sample state. Orders higher. There were practically and outside orders were moderate, except in the Nosthwest, and country off-eings were light. Statistical news was mainly builded, the principal factor being Brackinsel's report of a decrease in the visible sample seat of the Rocky Mountains. Weather now was conflicting. Advices from the greater portion of the winter limit indicated good grawing and harvesting conditions, but there were principled for the post of the spring crop.
